3. Service Committee
   Dr. Krieg reported that they met without a quorum. Wording and interpretation in the policy manual and legality vs. ethics were discussed. The latter was related to trusting a CEO.

3. Other Board Reports & Ownership Linkages
   1. LAC, WATS, A2 Transportation Commission
      a. Local Advisory Council: Kathleen Mozak-Betts read a report on behalf of the Local Advisory Council (LAC), particularly: University of Michigan doing a transportation study, recommendation of a new Board Member on their August Agenda, William DeGoot is the new, temporary liaison.
      b. Washentaw Area Transportation Study: Dr. Krieg reported on the agenda including an amendment to the transportation improvement program which passed.
      c. A2 Transportation Commission
         Ms. Sims attended her first official meeting last night and reported in particular: a presentation was made about the traffic revamping program, Mr. Cooper presented on the status of “Vision Zero” which is focusing on having zero transportation fatalities, Mr. Carpenter presented on the AAATA Millage which has received positive feedback.

3) Strategy and Operational Updates: CEO
   1. CEO Report
      Mr. Carpenter reported in particular: Detroit Metro Airport bus stops will change making them more convenient, especially for the Disabled who ride AirRide; timeline for July release of drafts of the 2019 Budget and the Strategic Business Plan for which public meetings will be held in August and a presentation made during the August Board Meeting with the September Board Meeting as the goal for approvals. Dr. Krieg inquired as to the status of the Ypsilanti Transit Center, Route Structure and the Fare Study. Mr. Carpenter reported they will be focused on after the August 7th Millage.

   2. Monitoring Report: 2.11: Communication and Support to the Board
      Mr. Carpenter reported approval is not being requested yet because the report is incomplete. Topics to address include interpretation of the Board as a customer of the CEO and the CEO’s obligation to individual Board Members vs. the full decision-making body, “No Surprises” from the CEO to the Board, proof he hasn’t mislead them. A discussion of these topics ensued.

   3. Monitoring Report: 2.0: Global Executive Constraint
Mr. Carpenter reported this is viewed as an umbrella policy but is not complete therefore acceptance is not being requested and includes in particular: that the CEO follow the conceptual ideals of lawfulness, prudence, ethics.
