   Jim Moegensen recalled the original AAATA interest in the Y—Lot which was at a time when money was needed to build a new one. The City now has the money to cover what they paid for the lot. 3. General Announcements
   1. Chairman Mahler commented he was proud of the Millage election which did very well with 83% of the vote, expressed appreciation for the voters who supported it, stated that this was a mandate to keep up what is being done, do more and thanked the donors and those that worked to raise the money including Mr. Allemang, Mike Garfield, Mr. Hewitt, Mr. Carpenter. Other Board Members and Mr. Carpenter made similar comments.
   2. Chairman Mahler announced that this is the last meeting for their esteemed colleague Gillian Ream Gainsley and invited her to join him at the podium. He noted that she was the first representative from Ypsilanti, joining the Board in 2013, was an advocate across jurisdictions, had held several positions including Recording Secretary and member of the Governance Committee, setting a high standard to be followed. Ms. Gainsley then spoke of her appreciation for the last 5 years, that she had learned a lot and was talking to others to encourage them to join the Board. She was presented with “The Ride” Mailbox.
   3. Mr. Carpenter announced that it was sadly the last meeting for Forest Yang. Although he had only been here for a year it has been very fruitful, especially internally and will serve us well into the future. Mr. Yang spoke indicating that he had learned a lot, he admires the dedication of the Board, the community support shows appreciation and that the Board and staff has the best intent for the best community service.

4. Chairman Mahler asked if there were other announcements. There were not.

2) Policy Monitoring and Development

         b. Washentaw Area Transportation Study: Dr. Krieg reported that there was no meeting because they lacked an agenda. He highlighted some projects that are under discussion including Relimage Washtenaw. Discussion and questions followed.
         c. A2 Transportation Commission
            Ms. Sims didn’t attend last night so Mr. Cooper gave the report. There was a full agenda and he gave specifics on a variety of projects. Chairman Mahler requested a copy of the Transportation Commission Report for the Board.

3) Strategy and Operational Updates: CEO
   1. Draft Strategic Business Plan
      Mr. Carpenter reported on the beginning of rolling out the Strategic Business Plan and the Budget with added information from the public, in particular: The Strategic Business Plan is the transition between the Board’s expectations (Ends) and the implementation of them in an annual cycle that is revisited each year. It is a new tool that enables feedback and transparency.
Mr. Carpenter reviewed the details of how the Board’s goals would be reached based upon prioritized projects. In particular, he highlighted expansion vs. maintenance/keeping things in a “state of good repair”. He requested feedback from the Board and the public and provided venues for this so that the document could then be tweaked. He reviewed details of specific priorities and how they were selected. He noted that one member of the public asked the interesting question, “what keeps you up at night”?

2. Draft 2019 Budget
Mr. Metzinger reviewed the Budget, in particular; forecasting growth in 2019, highlighting major projects as they fit in with the balanced budget requirement, Operating Budget details including “state of good repair”, the 2019 Capital Budget. There were questions from the Board to which he responded that he will bring more detail with the next revision of the report, while other questions led to discussion. Dr. Krieg noted that the public should understand that the Board sets the goals on behalf of the community and will listen to it. Mr. Cooper and Mr. Allemang congratulated Mr. Carpenter and the Executive and Management Teams for the high quality of the reports. Mr. Cooper commented in reference to the “state of good repair”, that it is important to protect our assets which include our people and our facility.

3. Q3 Financial Report
Mr. Metzinger reviewed the details of the report highlighting what the reserve will cover, the beginning of 2019 and detailed investments. He answered questions by the Board on topics including quarterly revenue and the balance sheet.

4. Q3 Service Report
Mr. Smith reported an 85% on time performance and explained how that number was gotten. Mr. Carpenter added additional context and answered a question about what level of incident gets reported to the Board. Mr. Smith commented that the Strategic Business Plan is a contract with the public which he feels is a personal obligation. Mr. Cooper stated that he disliked an on time performance below 80% and it’s important to know why. This was discussed.

5. CEO Report
The report was received. There was no discussion.

4) Board Development
   1. Chairman Mahler asked if there was anything. There was nothing.

5) Emergent Business + Budget Public Hearing

      Jim Moegensen of Ann Arbor thanked the Board and Staff for the Strategic Business Plan and the Budget. He stated the state function was difficult to figure out and without Chris White, he didn’t know that Air Ride qualified for state funding. He stated that the fares are complicated but that the Strategic Business Plan and the Budget were very helpful. He compared AAATA to the U of M transportation noting they do not have the same general population, in particular AAATA, including ParaTransit, transports the low income, young people and seniors. He would like to see more budget details. He has some early POSA Agreements and thinks they would be helpful maybe as an Appendix to help people understand how they work. Chairman Mahler thanked him for his comments and stated they will be taken under advisement.

Michelle Barney, Chidster Place, Ypsilanti, stated she was glad the Millage won, that she got involved with groups to support it before the election, that she will develop more contacts for additional millages, things that were mailed helped her speak about the Millage and she complimented Mr. Carpenter and the Board on their work. She noted that papers sent by AAATA in the mail were helpful for her to present with. She also commented that at her bus stop, the drivers often don’t see passengers waiting on the other side of the street and that perhaps drivers are more worried about time than looking for passengers which is not so good. Chairman Mahler thanked her for her comments and stated they will be taken under advisement. Chairman Mahler suggested returning to the regular agenda. Mr. Cooper made a motion to do so. Ms. Gainsley seconded. An all hands vote was unanimous.
